The Tel-Aviv University Center for Combatting Pandemics (TCCP) offers competitive travel grants of up to NIS 2000 each, as partial support of active participation in international conferences, workshops or courses (outside of Israel). Tel-Aviv University students, post-doctoral fellows, and research associates, who already participated or are planning to participate in a conference during 2023, are invited to submit applications. Grants are offered only to cover active participation in meetings relevant to research on combatting pandemics held till between January 1\textsuperscript{st} 2023 to December 31\textsuperscript{st} 2023.

Applicants should submit:

- CV (short – up to 3 pages) - NIH style (ask us for a template if you are not familiar with the style)
- Letter of recommendation from supervisor - up to one page
- Research Abstract - up to one page
- Details of the conference, workshop or course (including date and location)

Applications not conforming to the requested format will not be considered.

Deadline for submission of applications: 31/08/2023

Applications should be submitted by Email to:

</tr>
</tbody>

The submission Email should include in the subject line: “TCCP Travel grants 2023 - Name of applicant”. If you do not get an approval from us that we received your application after 1 week, please send us a reminder Email.

Requests will be reviewed in September 2023, but travel grants will be provided only after receipt of a written invitation to actively participate (poster or a lecture) at a conference, or attend a workshop or course (or proof of actual participation – copies of receipts).

Sincerely,
Prof. Itai Benhar
Director of the Tel Aviv University Center for Combatting Pandemics
